LABORERS" IMPORTED INTO CURA.-A Havana condent of the New York Herald shows, by ally compiled statistics, that twenty-eight thoufive hundred and thirty-one "laborers"-necoolies, and Yucatan Indians-have been set on in Cuba since 1853, and that four thousand hundred and four unfortunates lost their lives nsitu-a mortality of sixteen and one-fourth ent, on the gross number delivered. The price end was lower at date.

departion to Brazil.—A propositon is under departion by the Government of Brazil, to encour-migration from Europe, by granting bounty and to emigrants. It has been widely discussed avorably regarded. Considerable jealousy of the I States was expressed by the press, because it difficult to turn the great tide of emigration North to South America. Don Pedro has taken eps to carry out Minister Meade's ideas.
